Social Studies	MS	Secular Texas History	Sarah Morton	Thursday
		Description	Come explore the rich history of our great state! We will delve into Texas history from the earliest times of Native American inhabitants to the present day. Each week at home students will read a short selection from a history text, answer comprehension questions, and then in class learn more details through short lectures, class discussion, and activities. Students will organize what they learn through outlines, timelines, and maps. They will learn how to study a primary source. They will choose a historical fiction novel to read and present to the class with a book report. As a capstone project, students will research a famous Texan of any era and present their research to the class

Social Studies	HS	Ancient Mediterranean Region History	Sarah Morton	Tuesday/Thursday
		Description	Have you ever wanted to learn where and how our Western civilization began? Our political thought? Our poetry? Art? Philosophy? Religion? Science? The roots of American and European civilization grew in the vibrant soil of the ancient Mediterranean region. The civilizations that flourished there thousands of years ago still shape our modern cultures. In this class, students will read The History of the Ancient World, as well as ancient primary sources, mythology, philosophy, drama, and poetry. They will organize what they learn through outlines, maps, and timelines. Class time will include short lectures and lots of discussion. There will be
